Human Services Delivery & Administration with Substance Addiction Studies Concentration (B.S.)

Location(s): Gainesville, Online

← Return to: Programs

120 hours

The BS in Human Services Delivery & Administration (HSDA) with Substance Addiction Studies Concentration prepares students with the knowledge and skills necessary to serve individuals, families, groups, and communities and manage human services functions. Concentration classes in Substance Addiction Studies build on this core knowledge and emphasize the knowledge and skills necessary to work in the field of substance addiction. Students are able to apply and further develop this knowledge through three semesters of required field practicum classes; two field practicum placements must be directly related to substance addiction studies.

The degree has the option to be completed completely online.

HSDA students must achieve a grade of C or better in all required classes.
