Indo-Pacific Studies Minor

← Return to: Programs

18 hours

The Indo-Pacific Studies Minor consists of 18 credits with 6 upper division classes focusing on the Indo-Pacific region. There will be one required course for this Minor with students then able to choose from a wide range of courses so they can focus on areas they want to specialize in. Students are responsible for understanding the prerequisites for all upper division classes within the context of this minor.

POLS 1101 and POLS 2401 are prerequisites for all upper-division POLS classes.
